Geneseo High School Aviation Club

Our vision for what this club would look like.

Willing Gen-Air pilot/adult volunteers so far with more to be added as we develop:
Todd Sieben, Kyle Ganson, Kent Johnson, Dion Carr, Doug States, Sid Kemmis

Geneseo High School Teacher willing to sponsor the Club: Kyle Bess

Participating Organizations: Gen-Air, Inc. and EAA Chapter 410

Facilities available for Club meetings and activities: Geneseo High School and the Gen-Airpark Pilot Lounge and Educational Facility

Mission of the Club: To broaden the knowledge of interested local high school students about aviation related opportunities through research, study, and activities.

Possible activities to accomplish the Mission include EAA Young Eagle rides in locally based aircraft, hands on aircraft maintenance projects, aircraft modeling and flying, drone flying, ground school sessions to learn subjects required to become a pilot, visits to club meetings by area aviation professionals in a range of potential aviation careers including air traffic control, avionics, aircraft maintenance, corporate flight departments, airline pilots, airport management, etc. The Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) "Aeroeducate Program" and the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA) "You Can Fly" and "AV8RS" High School STEM initiatives may be used as well for resource material. All of these activities and more are locally possible. Which are pursued will depend on the student's desires with coaching from the sponsoring teacher and adult volunteers.
