

Job Title: Geneseo High School “CARES” Classroom Instructor

Location: Geneseo High School

Position Type: Full-Time

Job Summary: Geneseo High School is seeking a compassionate and dedicated High School instructor to work with high social/emotional needs students within a self-contained classroom setting. This position requires an individual who can provide a supportive and nurturing learning environment, help students develop emotional intelligence, coping skills, and academic success. The ideal candidate should possess strong interpersonal skills, empathy, and a deep understanding of the challenges faced by high school students with emotional needs including trauma.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Emotional support and understanding
2. Blended learning instruction
3. Classroom management
4. Collaboration with staff, families, and local agencies
5. Teach daily SEL lessons and embed skills throughout daily routine.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Teaching, and/or Social Work, Psychology or a related field.
- Valid teaching certification or PEL.
- Prior experience working with high school students preferred
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Experience teaching/leading SEL preferred
- Familiarity with online blended learning programs preferred

Application Process:

- Candidates will need to fill out an online application
- <https://www.geneseoschools.org/page/employment>