PRESS

Policy Reference Education Subscription Service (Annual Subscription Service)

PRESS is the foundational service of IASB Policy Services' subscription and one-time service offerings. As an annual subscription service, it is an online resource for school board members, administrators, and school attorneys looking for well-reasoned sample policies, exhibits, and procedures, plus their legal rationale and legal references supporting them.

PRESS is published through PRESS Online at iasb.com and has two components:

1. A Policy Reference Manual (PRM) that serves as an encyclopedia of 1400+ pages of sample materials. The PRM helps the board address questions such as:
 - What are appropriate policy subjects?
 - What is the impact of state or federal law?
 - What should be addressed in administrative procedures?
2. PRESS Issues, each with an Update Memo, that contain periodic updates and revisions to the PRM based upon changes in the law and best practices.

The PRM and PRESS Update Memos are written by IASB's Office of General Counsel with valuable input and suggestions from the PRESS Advisory Board (PAB). PAB members are a group of distinguished individuals from the legal and education fields.

The Policy Reference Manual has eight separate sections.

Each PRESS policy is dated.

Applicable legal references and policy cross-references are listed.

Explanations, analysis, rationale, options, and legal references are contained in footnotes; these are for reference purposes and must not be adopted as part of a policy.

A student's appearance, including dress and grooming, must not disrupt the educational process, interfere with the maintenance of a positive teaching/learning climate, or compromise reasonable standards of health, safety, and decency. Procedures for handling students who dress or groom inappropriately will be developed by the Superintendent and included in the Student Handbook(s) . ²
LEGAL REF.:	105 ILCS 5/10-22.25b. Tinker v. Des Moines Independent School Dist. , 89 S.Ct. 733 (1969).
CROSS REF.:	7:130 (Student Rights and Responsibilities), 7:165 (School Uniform), 7:190 (Student Behavior)
¹ The footnotes are not intended to be part of the adopted policy; they should be removed before the policy is adopted. ² State or federal law controls this policy's content. 105 ILCS 5/10-22.25b specifically authorizes a school board to adopt a school uniform or dress code policy. There are hundreds of decisions on dress codes and uniform policies, making it imperative that a board contact its attorney for assistance in applying the law to specific fact situations. Generally, if a student's dress has sufficient communicative content, it will warrant First Amendment protection. If protected, a school's ability to regulate the dress will be analyzed according to Tinker v. Des Moines Independent School District, 89 S.Ct. 733 (1969) – it may be regulated only if it would substantially disrupt school operations or interfere with the right of others. In Brand v. Board of Educ. of City of Chicago, 2006 WL 623651 (N.D.Ill., 2/6/06), earlier decision, 326 F.Supp.2d 916 (N.D.Ill., 2004), an Illinois federal court upheld a school's authority to punish students for wearing t-shirts portraying a one-handed boy; the court said: "A school need not tolerate student speech that is inconsistent with the school's basic educational mission even though the First Amendment would protect similar speech or expressive conduct outside of the school setting. This holding is suspect after the Seventh Circuit decision in Zumpanik v. Indian Prairie School Dist., #244_636 F.3d 874 (7th Cir. 2011). There the court held that the school district violated students' free speech rights by forbidding them from wearing during school hours a T-shirt saying "Be Happy, Not Gay." A school may regulate student dress that does not have sufficient communicative content to receive free speech protection, provided the regulation is not arbitrary or excessive. Although many courts have ruled similarly with respect to grooming, e.g., hair length, and non-earring piercings, the Seventh Circuit, the federal appellate court that governs Illinois, has struck down school regulations governing hair length and earrings (See Breen v. Kahl, 419 F.2d 1034 (7th Cir., 1969); Crews v. Cleaves, 432 F.2d 1259 (7th Cir., 1970) (exclusion of long-haired student from class constituted denial of equal protection to male students); Arnold v. Carpenter, 459 F.2d 939 (7th Cir., 1972); Holsapple v. Woods, 500 F.2d 49 (7th Cir., 1974) (limitation of ruling recognized by Hayden ex rel. v. Greensburg Community School Corp., 743 F.3d 569 (7th Cir., 2014) (recognizing school's right to set policy); Olesen v. Board of Educ. Dist. 238, 676 F.Supp. 820, 822 (N.D.Ill.1987) (male students have a liberty interest in wearing an earring to school). But see Bian v. Fort Thomas Public Sch. Dist., 401 F.3d 381 (6th Cir. 2005) (upheld a Kentucky middle school's student dress code that prohibited visible body piercing other than ears). A school's uniform policy was upheld in Alwood v. Clark and Belleville Township High School Dist., 2011 WL 2001317 (S.D.Ill., 2005). ³ A comprehensive Student Handbook can provide notice to parents and students of the school's conduct rules, extracurricular and athletic participation requirements, and other important information. The Handbook can be developed by the building principal, but should be reviewed and approved by the superintendent and board. Members of the Ill. Principals Assoc. may subscribe to the IPA's Model Student Handbook Service. While this service is not a handbook per se, it provides principals with quick, user-friendly access to model student handbook provisions that are attorney drafted and fully aligned with IASB's policy services. For more information, see: www.illprincipals.org/resources/model-student-handbook. See also 7:190-E2, Student Handbook Checklist.

School Board Policies Online (SBPOL)

(Annual Subscription Service)

Web-publish the board's policy manual at a publicly available link. IASB publishes the manual on the same service platform used for the PRESS and PRESS Plus services.

The Board Policy Manual Accessed via the District Website

The primary work of the board is governing through written board policy, and the best way to communicate the board's good work to its community is to publish it online. Publishing the policy manual with SBPOL via a link on the district website facilitates online access to the board's governing document with an easy-to-use interface. This increases board transparency and keeps staff, students, parents, and the community informed about the board's current policy directives.

A School Board Policies Online subscription includes:

- Conversion and online publication of the board's current adopted policy manual
- Interactive links from each of the policies directly to legal references, cross-references, and external websites
- Branding of the district's SBPOL webpage with district-specific logo and color scheme
- Rapid updating of submitted updates
- Unlimited access, storage, and updates
- A search engine designed especially for school board policy manuals
- District administration login credentials providing access to an archiving feature and multi-district searching capability

Combine Services for Added Features

Subscribe to both SBPOL and PRESS Plus (IASB's customized, full-maintenance policy update service, see page 4) to get instant updates to your web-published board policy manual any time board-adopted edits are processed through the PRESS Plus service.

SBPOL subscribers have the option to also web-publish the district's administrative procedures manual through the Administrative Procedures Online (APOL) service at a separate link for administrator use. See pages 8-9.

Webinar demonstration available upon request.

Administrative Procedures Online (APOL)

(Annual Subscription Service)

Web-publish the district's administrative procedures manual at a separate link from the web-published Board policy manual. This allows administrators to efficiently communicate the procedures that implement board policy to appropriate district staff. A subscription to School Board Policies Online (SBPOL) is required prior to subscribing to APOL.

An Administrative Procedures Online subscription includes:

- Conversion and online publication of the district's current implemented administrative procedures manual
- Interactive links from each of the procedures directly to legal references, cross-references, and external websites
- Branding of the district's APOL webpage with district-specific logo and color scheme

Policy Manual Customization

(One-Time Fee)

A Policy Manual Customization is the board's first step toward governing the district through written policy and a required step for boards that want to subscribe to PRESS Plus (IASB's customized, full-maintenance policy update service, see page 4).

A Policy Manual developed as part of a Policy Manual Customization:

- Contains written policies that include up-to-date district goals, delegate authority to the superintendent, define operating limits, ensure legal compliance, establish board processes, and provide for monitoring of district progress.
- Includes all policies required by state and federal law and regulations.
- Has an easily identifiable coding system, alphabetical index, and table of contents.
- Contains individual policies that are clear and concise, with legal references and cross-references to related policies.
- Has adoption dates that are clearly stated at the end of each policy.

Board Involvement

During a Policy Manual Customization, an IASB policy director will work with the board and superintendent to develop a new and up-to-date local school board policy manual. This policy manual will be based upon IASB's Policy Reference Manual and will be customized to include the board's current policies and practices, as appropriate.

Professional Development

The board will benefit from in-district board development on the topics of effective board governance, the policymaking roles of the board, and board/superintendent roles and responsibilities.

The Process

The customization process may vary to meet individual preferences and needs of the board.

Generally, it proceeds as follows:

1. The policy director, board members, and superintendent meet in the district to outline the process and meeting dates, and to review board and district operations and current practices.
2. The policy director prepares and delivers a draft policy manual based upon IASB's Policy Reference Manual, input from the first meeting, and current district documents.
3. Board members and administrators review the draft manual.
4. The policy director, board members, and superintendent meet up to three times in the district to review, edit, and further customize the policy manual. Additional meetings may be requested by the board at a per-visit fee.
5. The policy director prepares and delivers an edited manual ready for review and board adoption.
6. Adoption dates are added by IASB, and the board receives a final copy of the manual.
